

Austrian Study Center
for Peace and Conflict Resolution - ASPR

pacsa
peace and conflict studies in anthropology

OAW
Austrian Academy of Sciences

SECOND BI-ANNUAL PACSA MEETING 2009

9.-11.October 2009

Austrian Study Center for Peace and Conflict Resolution (ASPR)

“Continuities and ruptures between conflict, post-conflict and peace”

Preliminary Programme

Friday, 9th October 2009,
16 – 19 hrs

Welcome Address to PACSA Meeting 2009

Introduction to Peace Center Stadtschlaining

Marianne Six-Hohenbalken

Introduction to the Region: An Anthropology of a Borderland

Coffee Break

Carolyn Nordstrom, University of Notre Dame, USA

Key Note Address & Discussion

20.00: Dinner at Hotel Burg Schlaining

Saturday, 10th October 2009,
9 – 10.15 hrs

PANEL A – Chair: Erella Grassiani Regine Penitsch, Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology, Halle (Saale) The Dynamics of Polarized Identities in Darfur Barbara Karatsioli, EHESS Paris Escalade for Peace: How to render local entente a global solution? (case of Cyprus)	PANEL B – Chair: Nerina Weiss Èlia Susanna i López, University of Barcelona &amp; University of Bradford Democratisation Processes and the role of culture of Violence (illustrated with cases of Guatemala and Afghanistan) Christian Warta, Austrian Academy of Sciences Dehumanization and Discourses of the “Primitive”. Different Paths to Violence in Indonesian Papua
--	---

10.45 – 12.30 hrs

PANEL A – Chair: Erella Grassiani Ainhoa Montoya, University of Manchester An Unfinished Transition: Irreconcilable Divisions and Ongoing Violence in Post-War El Salvador Stefan Khittel, OIIP, University of Vienna When was the “posconflicto”? (Colombia) Sophie Roche, Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology, Halle (Saale) ‘Youth bulge’ as source of civil conflict. Linking anthropological discussions to politico-demographic approaches (with examples of Tajikistan)	PANEL B – Chair: Nerina Weiss Patricia Zuckerhut, University of Vienna Towards a Feminist Anthropological Theory of Violence Kathryn Hohman, University of London Intersections of gender, nation, and conflict in Nepal Irene Kucera, Austrian Academy of Sciences Making the Silenced Heard: Multiple Perspectives on Women’s Rights Issues in Tunisia and Afghanistan
--	---

12.30 – 13.30 hrs: Lunch at Hotel Burg Schlaining

13.30 – 15.00 hrs: Optional Visit to Peace Library and Peace Museum

15.15 – 16.30 hrs

PANEL A – Chair: Alexander Horstmann Martin Slama, Austrian Academy of Sciences A Diaspora of Peace? Hadhrami Indonesians in (Post-)Conflict Settings Jeroen Adam, University of Gent Repairing a broken order. Repatriation, adat and a purified present on the island of Ambon, Indonesia	PANEL B – Chair: Maria Six-Hohenbalken Sarah Keeler, University of Exeter Modernity and the Normalisation of Violence in post-conflict Iraqi Kurdistan Erella Grassiani, VU University, Amsterdam Studying Soldiers while Marching against the War: Positioning the self between research and activism in Israel Nerina Weiss, University of Oslo Ethics in conflict. Doing anthropology in Eastern Turkey
--	---

17 – 18.15 hrs

PANEL A – Chair: Alexander Horstmann Lidewyde Berckmoes, VU University, Amsterdam Defining war and peace: an exploration of the concepts in Burundi Michael Lidauer, Austrian Study Center for Peace and Conflict Resolution Aceh vs. Timor Leste: Third Party Interventions Compared
--

19.00 hrs: Departure for Dinner at Wine Tavern

Sunday, 11th October 2009

9.15 – 10.30 hrs

Chair: Michael Lidauer

Eyal Ben-Ari

Anthropology, Research and State Violence: Some observations from an Israeli anthropologist

Alexander Horstmann, Max Planck Institute for the Study of Religious and Ethnic Diversity, Göttingen

Intimacy and Violence: Examples from Southeast Asia and the Balkans

11 – 12.15 hrs

Chair: Michael Lidauer

Election of PACSA Officials

Discussion on Follow-up Meetings

Discussion about Publication of Papers

12.30 – 13.30 hrs: Lunch at Hotel Burg Schlaining

14.00 hrs Departure