

Modern German Literature / Comparative Literature within the framework of the CoE EurAsian Transformations

As one of the largest employers in Tyrol the University of Innsbruck offers a diverse and exciting field of activity for employees with various educational and occupational backgrounds. The University of Innsbruck welcomes personnel diversity and is committed to the principle of equal opportunity.

The Research Institute Brenner-Archiv is searching for a

Project Assistant (Post-Doc) (40 h/week)

(Employment for the period of three years, starting on October 1st, 2024)

Responsibilities:

- Scientific working on the following subject areas: "Two empires – the Habsburg Monarchy and its view of Japan"; "Habsburg border regions – views on Galicia and Bukovina"
- Monograph on the view of Japan in the Austrian Press (1500-1918)
- Organisation of an international conference on Petrofiction in Galicia and Bukovina
- Active participation in the interdisciplinary Cluster of Excellence EurAsian Transformations and in the Doctoral College programme Austrian Studies
- Administrative and organisational tasks (editorial work)
- Co-organisation of workshops

Required qualifications:

- Completed doctoral studies in Modern German Literature or a comparable subject in Literature or Cultural Studies
- Expertise in in Modern German Literature and Comparative Literature
- Broad knowledge of Japonism and Post-Japonism in Literature and Culture
- Academic expertise in the field of Austrian Literature in transnational contexts
- Experience in project management and acquiring third-party funding
- Relevant scientific achievements beyond the dissertation as well as post-doc experience or relevant professional experience
- Creative problem-solving skills, communication, teamwork and conflict resolution capabilities

Job profile:

The description associated with this job duties and requirements can be found at:

www.uibk.ac.at/universitaet/profile-wiss-personal/drittmittelangestellte